

Seven-Point, Two-Trait Rubric

Trait 1 for Informational/Explanatory Genre

Writing Trait	Points	Criteria
Idea Development, Organization, and Coherence This trait examines the writer's ability to effectively establish a controlling idea and to support the idea with evidence from the text(s) read and to elaborate on the idea with examples, illustrations, facts, and other details in order. The writer must integrate the information from the text(s) into his/her own words and arrange the ideas and supporting evidence (from text that they have read) in order to create cohesion for an informative/explanatory essay.	4	The student's response is a well-developed informative/explanatory text that examines a topic in depth and conveys ideas and information clearly based on text as a stimulus. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Effectively introduces a topic • Effectively organizes ideas, concepts, and information using various strategies such as definition, classification, comparison/contrast, and cause/effect • Effectively develops the topic with multiple, relevant facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples related to the topic • Effectively uses appropriate transitions to create cohesion and clarify the relationships among ideas and concepts • Uses precise language and domain-specific vocabulary to inform about or explain the topic • Establishes and maintains a formal style • Provides a strong concluding statement or section that follows from the information or explanation presented
	3	The student's response is a complete informative/explanatory text that examines a topic and presents information based on a text as a stimulus. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Introduces a topic • Generally organizes ideas, concepts, and information • Develops the topic with a few facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples • Uses some transitions to connect and clarify relationships among ideas, but relationships may not always be clear • Uses some precise language and domain-specific vocabulary to explain the topic • Maintains a formal style, for the most part • Provides a concluding statement or section
	2	The student's response is an incomplete or oversimplified informative/explanatory text that cursorily examines a topic. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attempts to introduce a topic • Attempts to develop a topic with too few details • Ineffectively organizes ideas, concepts, and information • Uses limited language and vocabulary that does not inform or explain the topic • Uses few transitions to connect and clarify relationships among ideas • Uses a formal style inconsistently or uses an informal style • Provides a weak concluding statement or section
	1	The student's response is a weak attempt to write an informative/explanatory text that examines a topic. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • May not introduce a topic, or topic is unclear • May not develop a topic • May be too brief to group any related ideas together • May not use any linking words to connect ideas • Uses vague, ambiguous, or repetitive language • Uses a very informal style • Provides a minimal or no concluding statement or section
	0	The student's response is flawed for various reasons and will receive a condition code: The condition codes can be found on page 79 of this guide.
