WIA Summer Reading

Some questions/issues to think about while you read On the Come Up.

1. Why is Hip-Hop so important to the Black community?
2. What roles do race, socio-economic status and gender play in Bri's "come up"?
3. Why do you think the author left the novel with such a cliffhanger? What can you predict will happen to Bri considering its ending?
4. What does the phrase "crabs in a barrel" mean? How do we see it playing out in the novel?
5. What do you think it will take for Bri's whole community to be "on the come up"?

Reading Tips:

1. "Break" your book up into sections to make the reading manageable.
2. Set aside a certain amount of time that you need to complete your book.
3. Keep notes (graphic organizer, journal, or other note taking tool) to write down words, ideas, questions, or "aha" moments you have when you are reading.
4. Make a connection to what you are reading.
 - How is the character like you or like someone you know?
 - What is the conflict? Is it interesting? How did the author make it interesting?
 - Can you connect to the characters in the book? Why or why not?

Dear Rising 7th Grader,

Things have changed drastically over the past few months, but we would like to maintain some normalcy through the summer reading program! Over the next few months, we want to give you an opportunity to keep thinking about things that are happening in and outside of your world. Your teachers believe that you can do this through reading some exciting books! You are being asked to read two books:

Book 1—Strong Suggestion: On the Come Up by Angie Thomas. The assignment is to write an informational OR persuasive essay (see rubrics as a guide).

*Please reach out to me, Dr. Dukes melanie.dukes@wesleyacademy.org or Dr. Pullen, alastair.pullen@wesleyacademy.org if you have a problem with getting the suggested book.

Book 2: A book of your choice. A list of optional books has been provided, long with the Lexile range. For your second book, you will be required to create a representation of what you have learned (see suggestions below):

- Create a series of Tik Toks that summarizes/dramatizes the book.
 - Design a video game based on the novel you read.
 - Create a series of pictures that represents the sections or chapters of the book.
 - Create a summarized graphic novel of the book.
- Create a Vlog that expresses your feelings about the book.
- Produce a You Tube series that documents the story—include the facts from the book—character development, conflicts, climax, and resolution.
 - Write and record a one person show of the book.
 - Create an indoor or outdoor game of the book: e.g. board game (Monopoly, Clue, Gestures), card game (UNO, Spoons), using sports equipment (four corners, dodge ball, basketball).
 - Scrapbook

Due Date: The summer assignments are due August 31st. Assignments received after this deadline at the discretion of the teacher.
